

1

BALLOT RECEIVING

Ballots are returned via are put in long postal trays. Ballots brought in from official drop sites are moved from their boxes and then put into long postal trays

Each tray of ballots is scanned by the sorter machine. It reads the barcode and captures an image of the signature on each ballot return envelop. The bar code is used to identify the voter who has returned the ballot.

